CE FORM 50
ETHICS COMPLAINT FORM AND INSTRUCTIONS

Use this form to file an ethics complaint or to file an amendment to an ethics complaint. An ethics investigation can only be initiated by a properly filed complaint, including a statement of facts alleging a possible violation of the ethics laws. Noncompliant or incomplete forms will be returned.

PLEASE NOTE: The Florida Commission on Ethics cannot intervene in your civil or criminal case, nor can we give you legal advice. We do not have jurisdiction to consider complaints against judges or to direct the actions of government agencies. We have no jurisdiction over violations of the Sunshine Law or the Open Meetings Law.

SECTION ONE—Person Bringing Complaint: The person bringing the complaint is known as "the Complainant." Please provide your name, address, and telephone number.

SECTION TWO—Person Against Whom Complaint is Brought: The person against whom the complaint is brought is known as "the Respondent." Provide the name, address, and telephone number of the Respondent, as well as that person's office or the position he or she holds or held, or for which he or she is a candidate. All complaints are confidential and considered independently, so if you are filing a complaint against more than one person, use a separate complaint form for each person.

SECTION THREE—Statement of Facts: On a separate sheet(s) of paper, please provide the following:

- Please explain fully, but as briefly as possible, what the Respondent did that you believe violated the ethics laws of the State of Florida.
- Please explain how you became aware of these facts because the Commission may only investigate complaints based on personal knowledge or information other than hearsay.
- Please limit your submission to 15 pages or fewer, and do not submit voluminous exhibits or copies of statutes; if your complaint is deemed legally sufficient, it will be investigated and at that point, the investigator will obtain any relevant materials from you.
- Do not submit items such as oversize documents, audio or video tapes, CDs or DVDs, or flash drives. This will result in your complaint being returned. Also, Commission staff will not visit any URLs provided in your statement of facts.
- All complaints are confidential until a certain point in the proceedings. Do not cross-reference the filing of an ethics complaint against another person in your statement of facts.

SECTION FOUR—Oath: Complaints must be sworn before a notary or other official authorized to administer oaths. Unsworn complaints will be returned.

WHERE TO FILE THE COMPLAINT: The original complaint form (original signature and notarization) must be mailed or delivered to the Commission of Ethics at the address on the complaint form. ## Jurisdiction of the Commission:

The Commission on Ethics has the authority to review and investigate complaints concerning possible violations of the State's ethics laws by state and local elected or appointed public officers and public employees and others as designated by Florida law. Most of the ethics laws are contained in Article II, Section 8, Florida Constitution (the Sunshine Amendment) or Part III, Chapter 112, the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees. The Commission does not have jurisdiction with respect to the open meetings or public records laws, residency requirements, or elections laws, and has no jurisdiction with respect to judges, federal officials, or most employees or officers of private companies or attorneys in private practice. The Commission's jurisdiction is limited to individual public officers or employees.

By Florida law, the Commission on Ethics cannot conduct an investigation unless someone files a sworn complaint with the Commission alleging a violation of law has occurred, or it receives a referral from the Governor, the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, a State Attorney, or a U.S. Attorney. Without a complaint or referral, the Commission is unable to take action, even after learning of alleged misconduct through newspaper reports, letters, or phone calls. The Commission cannot accept anonymous complaints and it must disclose the identity of the complainant to the respondent. A copy of the complaint is mailed to the respondent within five (5) working days after receipt by the Commission.

Filing a Complaint:

Complaints must be on the form promulgated by the Commission. The currently used form is available on the Commission's website. Provide all the information you want the Commission to consider with the complaint; the Commission cannot consider correspondence not accompanied by a sworn complaint. In providing your statement of facts, indicate what the person did that you believe was wrong, and what facts you are aware of that give rise to that belief. Importantly, the Commission only has the authority to investigate allegations based upon personal knowledge or information other than hearsay. If you believe the official—or some other person or entity—benefitted as a result of the alleged wrongdoing, state who you believe benefitted, and how you believe they benefitted.

Please write your complaint as briefly as possible. Including lengthy or voluminous exhibits may slow the processing of your complaint. Please do not include copies of Florida Statutes. Materials such as audio and videotapes, CDs and DVDs, and thumb drives cannot be accepted and will be returned. If you believe material in a book, periodical, website, or other outside source is important, please summarize that information and include it in your complaint, as such sources will not be considered incorporated by reference.

All complaints are considered independent of one another, so if you are filing complaints against more than one person, please use a separate complaint form, and provide a separate statement of facts, for each person. Because each complaint is confidential until a certain stage is reached, if you file a complaint against someone, please do not refer to or identify other complaints you have made against others.

Pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes, no complaint or referral may be filed or disclosed with respect to a candidate for election within 30 days immediately preceding the date of the election, unless the complaint or referral is based upon personal information or information other than hearsay.
